

RESOLUTION APPROVING ST. CROIX COUNTY'S DESIGNATION
AS THE RESPONSIBLE UNIT FOR THE COUNTY

RESOLUTION NO. 91-02

St. Croix County, Wisconsin

WHEREAS, 1989 Wisconsin Act 335 requires recycling throughout the State; and

WHEREAS, the Act designates each city, village and town as a "responsible unit" for purposes of establishing and maintaining a recycling program; and

WHEREAS, the Act provides an alternative to the cities, villages and towns of a county by allowing the county to designate itself as the responsible unit; and

WHEREAS, if 75% of the population of a county supports the county designating itself as the responsible unit, substantial annual grants are available to the county to carry out its recycling program;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Town
(City, Village, Town)
of Egg Galle
(Name) that it supports St. Croix County designating itself as the responsible unit for the County for as long as the County maintains that designation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the option for a city, village or town to "opt out" of the County's designation as the responsible unit within 90 days of the adoption of the County's designation resolution, pursuant to section 159.90(1)(c), Wis. Stats., is hereby waived.

Dated this 9 day of Sept, 1991.

Arthur James Skovron
Richard Heebink Supervisor
Edward Mathison Supervisor